CHANGING THE WAY WE BUILD

New England is in the midst of an extraordinary period of investment into its transportation infrastructure. These projects bring an enormous amount of construction on our roads and rails that affect all types of users. However, advancements in both means and methods have allowed engineers to be more innovative in their designs while still reducing the impacts during construction.

technical sessions

1 Active Risk Management for the Charles River Basin ABP Vanasse Hangen Brustlin, Inc.

2 River Street/Western Avenue
